

ASCE WEST COAST BRANCH ENGINEER OF THE YEAR

AWARD ANNOUNCEMENT AND GUIDELINES

The ASCE West Coast Branch is excited to announce we will be awarding the ASCE West Coast Branch Engineer of the Year Award at this year's Tampa Bay Engineers Week Banquet that will be held at the Museum of Science and Industry (MOSI) in Tampa on February 19, 2010. We are offering our members an opportunity to submit nominations for the award. Please consider the information and criteria below prior to making a nomination.

PURPOSE

To honor an outstanding engineer who through his/her activities and endeavors has made an outstanding contribution to society and the engineering profession and thereby warrants the recognition of his/her fellow professionals.

BASIS FOR NOMINATION AND SELECTION

A nominee shall:

1. be a graduate of an engineering school recognized as accredited by the Florida Board of Professional Engineers;
2. have practiced engineering in the West Coast of Florida and been a subscribing member of the ASCE West Coast Branch for a minimum of three (3) years;
3. be a current Florida resident;
4. be a U.S. citizen or legal permanent U.S. resident

Nominees will be evaluated by the Selection Committee on the basis of the following considerations:

1. Achievements and distinction in technical field and mode of practice (government, education, industry and private practice): The Selection Committee on an equal basis will consider technical activity or individual contributions.
2. Professional activities and stature: Participation in professional and technical societies as a working member and as an officer, for the professional and technical improvement of engineers. Timelines of contributions should be considered: "What has he/she done lately?"

NOMINATIONS

The nominating activity shall be handled such that information as to the identity of each nominee is kept in confidence. To make a nomination, please send the name, email address and phone number of the nominee to Dane Hanson (danehanson@wilsonmiller.com) no later than October 23, 2009. A nomination form will be sent to the candidate to be filled out for final consideration.
